

I am pleased to hear that the FCC still supports our constitutional right to free speech. Some people want to selectively restrict our free speech based on their own political agenda. This is wrong.

If Sinclair broadcasting affiliates want to air this documentarty more power to them. I love America and hope that you folks at the FCC continue doing the fine job you are doing.